

- When You want an objective, independent review of your insurance and risk management program
- When You want to examine the cost of your insurance and risk management program
- When You had a loss that was not covered
- When You plan to competitively market your insurance program
- When You have decided to outsource risk management
- When You want to explore other methods of financing risk
- When Your business has changed significantly and might require an evaluation for new or additional coverage
- When Your loss history has made it difficult to purchase insurance
- When You are dissatisfied with your broker or insurer
- When You are dissatisfied with your claims service
- When You are considering a merger, acquisition or divestiture